

Wilson Dress Code

- Students have the right to dress as they choose provided their dress meets the approved dress and grooming code, does not disrupt students' activities, is not obscene or defamatory and does not endanger the physical health or safety of themselves or others.
- Shoes will be worn. Backless shoes are not safe on the stairs or appropriate for PE. 6th graders do not dress out for PE; therefore, an athletic type shoe for daily wear is recommended. ALL students in IPS must wear closed-toed shoes on lab days
- Clothing that exposes the entire shoulder, tube-tops, spaghetti straps or similar type clothing is not permitted.
- Clothing that exposes any part of the torso or midriff when hands are raised will not be worn. Note: Many stretch fabric shirts do not always stay down to cover the midriff.
- Clothing that reveals cleavage or under undergarments will not be worn. Underwear will not be visible. Clothing designed as undergarments will not be worn as outer garments.
- Clothing with tears that are indecent tears or that is not properly fastened will not be worn.
- Pajamas are not permitted.
- Boys' shirts will have sleeves.

- Hair will be clean and neatly groomed.
- Head coverings will not be worn, including bandanas.
- Miniskirts, mini dresses, and short shorts are not permitted. How to measure length: Student stands with arms down at sides. If the length of the clothing is shorter than the student's fingertip, the garment is inappropriate.
- Running shorts do not meet dress code.
- Leggings will only be worn when covered by a skirt or shorts of proper length.
- Garments and/or jewelry which display or suggest sexual, vulgar, drug, gang, or alcohol-related wording or graphics, or which provoke violence or disruption in school, will not be worn.
- Boys shorts/pants MUST be secured at the waist.
- Tops made of stretch fabric, which clings to the body, do not always stay down to cover the midriff. In addition, much of the stylish wear for teens is inappropriate for school. Bermuda shorts seem to be a style that girls like and meet the dress code.
